

Art Palette

I hope that you are all well

The highlights of today's edition:

- Autumn Term Art Classes – start 21st September – booking through reception closes on 16th September – several classes full in the studio
- September Art Lecture – 7pm on 22nd September
- Annual Art Group Exhibition and Sale – taking place in November as an exciting online art show

Autumn term art classes

We can now offer you the choice of taking the autumn term of classes either in the Art Studio (subject to government guidelines, including a maximum number of students) or live on zoom. You can choose; although several classes are full in the studio with spaces on zoom.

Call Reception before the 16th September on 020 8480 4200 to make your booking.

The highly successful Beginners and Improvers Drawing and Painting class takes place on Wednesday afternoons. There are spaces available as some students have decided to graduate onto the specialist classes.

The popular Life Drawing class on Wednesday mornings will once again have a live life model in the studio and has spaces available.

AUTUMN ART LECTURES

The dates of the three autumn lectures for your diaries are:

22nd September, 7pm - The Art of the Sublime - Colin Pink

20th October, 8pm - Rafael - Genius of the Renaissance in Rome - Jo Walton

24th November, 8pm - The Scottish Colourists - Anne Anderson

SEPTEMBER LECTURE

The Art of the Sublime - lecture by Colin Pink – Tuesday 22nd September

The lecture starts at 7pm, which is earlier than normal. We are hoping to keep the Piazza Pop Up refreshment trailer open before the lecture starts so you can congregate in the fresh air.

Colin Pink will talk about The Art of the Sublime. He will include the thoughts of Edmund Burke and Immanuel Kant in his lecture. We will learn how notions of the sublime are shown in art, with a special focus on art from the early nineteenth century to now. Artists to be explored include Caspar David Friedrich, JMW Turner, Georgia O'Keefe, Mark Rothko and Jackson Pollock. Contemporary installation artists include Yayoi Kusama, Richard Serra and Olafur Eliasson.

The lecture will take place in the Fountain Room, subject to government restrictions, and will be broadcast at the same time live on zoom.

The government restrictions include a maximum number of people attending the lecture in the Fountain Room. As a result, everyone who attends will have to be an art group member and will need to pre book. There will be no drop ins or guests.

We will send an email to all art group members shortly letting you know how to pre book and providing a link showing how to register to watch the lecture live on Zoom.

We know from the art group survey that these lectures are very popular and members are keen for them to restart. You may have picked up that we added a third lecture in November and look we look forward to being able to enjoy them again!

ANNUAL ART EXHIBITION AND SALE

Art Group Members are invited to contribute their art works to the 2020 Annual Art Exhibition and Sale which will take place online in November 2020 as an exciting high-quality 3D art show.

All Club Members will be able to tour the exhibition or look through the catalogue and go straight to the artists of their choice. You will be able to send a link to the exhibition to your friends, family and even collectors!

We will send an email to all Art Group members in October 2020 giving details on how to submit your entries.

You may submit up to three art works as usual; these should not be framed and you can decide whether any are for sale and at what price.

At this stage all you need to do is start choosing your entries; if they are not yet started or finished, now is a good time to do so!

This will be a wonderful opportunity to have your own artwork in a very professional virtual gallery.
