Free Online Golf Lessons

Lockdown provides us the time to reflect on our golf game and if you want to play better golf then I am here to help. I know in lockdown not everyone does not have all the right equipment, nets, mats for example but even if you have an old video, a video of your swing in the garden or just any questions about your golf game that you want answered please do not hesitate to ask.

Here is how to get your free golf lesson:

- Send me an email at ricky.pharo@roehamptonclub.co.uk of your golf swing video (if you cannot send it via email please email me and I will arrange it to be send by another method).
- 2. This can be a swing from the golf course or your garden and can be putting, chipping, pitching or full swing.
- 3. Let me know your tendencies draw or fade, push or pull, fat or thin strike etc.
- 4. I will analyse your swing and send you back some thoughts of ways to improve via a voiceover video or email this will focus on a couple of key things that we can improve in your golf swing.
- 5. Where possible I will send you drills that you can practice at home before our return to golf.

Below are some examples on online coaching I have done with European Tour Player Ashley Chesters.
