Buy any of the following Padel and receive 20% off all tennis / padel tennis clothing

We have demo rackets available so you can try before you buy

ADIPOWER LITE - £174.99

The new ADIPOWER LITE padel has a fibreglass cover and is very comfortable to play with. Its diamond shape gives it a very good power.

Resolutely oriented towards comfort and power, it will seduce offensive players thanks to a soft performance EVA foam that allows a maximum of speed when coming out of the racket. The plus of this racquet is the "relief" coating which increases spin on shots.

Who is the ideal player for this racquet?

The new ADIPOWER LITE is aimed at intermediate and advanced players looking for great power and comfort.

ADIPOWER CONTROL LITE - £174.99

The new ADIPOWER CTRL LITE padel has a fibreglass cover and is very comfortable to play with. Its round shape gives it a very good control and a maximum manoeuvrability.

With a focus on comfort and control, it will appeal to precise players. Thanks to the soft performance EVA foam, the racquet offers maximum racquet exit speed while still providing plenty of power. The added bonus of this racquet is a "relief" coating that increases spin on shots.

Who is the ideal player for this racket?

The new Adidas ADIPOWER CTRL LITE padel is aimed at intermediate and advanced players who are looking for a padel that provides optimal control and comfort.

RX30 - £108.99

The new Adidas RX30 padel racket has a fibreglass cover and is very comfortable to play with. Its round shape and light weight provide good control and maximum manoeuvrability.

The Adidas RX30 padel racket is designed for comfort and control and will appeal to precise players. Thanks to the soft performance EVA foam, which allows for maximum racquet exit speed, it still provides good power.

Who is the ideal player for this racket?

The new Adidas RX30 padel is aimed at beginners and intermediate players who are looking for a padel that provides optimal control and comfort.
