Book now for January Art Lecture 2022

The Creation and Early Years of the Newlyn School

Lecture by Alan Read

Tuesday 18th January at 8pm

Live simultaneously in the Club (subject to government Covid regulations at the time) and on zoom.

In the final decades of the nineteenth century a colony of artists formed in the Cornish fishing port of Newlyn. This lecture looks at some of the early pioneers of the 'school', in particular Walter Langley, who was one of the first to settle there and Stanhope Forbes, who is often described as the 'father' of Newlyn.

Book your place, whether that is live in the Club or live on Zoom, so we have an idea of numbers in the club or we can email you the zoom link, by calling the Reception Team on 020 8480 4200

For any queries contact, Sue Jell (Lectures Organiser) suejell@hotmail.co.uk

On behalf of myself and the art committee I hope that you all have a great Christmas and a happy New Year.

Stay fit and well!

We look forward to seeing you at classes and events throughout 2022.
