Book now for January Art Group Lecture 2022

The Creation and Early Years of the Newlyn School

Lecture by Alan Read

Tuesday 18th January at 8pm

Simultaneously live in the Club and on zoom

In the final decades of the nineteenth century a colony of artists formed in the Cornish fishing port of Newlyn. This lecture looks at some of the early pioneers of the 'school', in particular Walter Langley, who was one of the first to settle there and Stanhope Forbes, who is often described as the 'father' of Newlyn.

Book your place, whether that is live in the Club or live on Zoom, so we have an idea of numbers in the Club or we can email you the zoom link, by calling the Reception Team on 020 8480 4200

For any queries contact, Sue Jell, Lectures Organiser at suejell@hotmail.co.uk

Reading Room Exhibition – Susan Beard

Susan Beard (1936 – 2020) was a Club Member for many years and an Art Group Member. An exhibition of her artwork is currently on display in the Reading Room.

All the artwork on display is for 'sale' and, while Susan's family are not putting a price on anything, it would be appreciated if a donation could be made to the St Georges Hospital NHS charity.

Scan the QR code in the Reading Room or search for Beth Solomon on the Just Giving website to make a donation to the St George's Hospital Charity or donate with cash at Reception.

If the work that you fancy is in the holder, please take it with you. Displayed work can be taken at the end of the exhibition on Friday 17th December.
