Book now for the February Art Lecture

The Holland Park Circle

LIVE ON ZOOM ONLY

Tuesday 15th February at 7pm

The reign of Queen Victoria witnessed a spectacular rise in the visibility, wealth and prestige of English artists and designers. A group of leading artists established their studios in and around the new, fashionable district of London's Holland Park. The circle included Frederic Leighton, William Burges and William Holman Hunt.

This lecture tells the fascinating story of their lives, works and influence on society.

Open to Art Group members only

To book your place on zoom email Reception at reception_main@roehamptonclub.co.uk or call the team on 020 8480 4200

Class Artwork Exhibition

The annual Class Artwork exhibition will open in the Reading Room on Monday 28th March. A new team is busy working with our tutors and students to put together a great sample of work from the last year.

You are invited to celebrate the opening of the exhibition with Drinks, which will be available from the Fountain Room at 6pm and will be followed by our AGM

Spring Term Art Classes
