The European Club Championships (ECC) will take place from 4th to 7th September 2024. Roehampton Club in southwest London will host the European Cup of National Champions, with competing teams from all over Europe.

The European Squash Club Championships are the biggest event for squash club teams in Europe.

This year's 35th European Club Championships will be held in London, England at Roehampton Club. Roehampton Club is not only the host, but also provides the defending champions in the women's competition.

'We are very proud to be hosting this year's ECC and want to make this a special event for all involved. I look forward to seeing some of the best players in the world competing as well as some 2028 Olympic squash hopefuls. The set up is to encourage all players, guests, spectators to come and watch and help grow this wonderful sport' said Paul Lindsay, Roehampton Club Racquets Manager.
